

Bellevue is changing . . .

Our population is getting older, more culturally diverse – and our youth (under 18) population is holding steady compared to other cities.

How can we develop community connections that include these growing population segments?

Bellevue Neighborhoods Forum

A dialogue on building vibrant and connected communities

Thursday, May 12, 6–9 p.m.

Crossroads Community Center, 16000 NE 10th St

Featuring panelists:

Helena Stephens, Bellevue Family, Youth & Teen Services Manager

Ralph Ibarra, Diversity Consultant

Joanne Donohue, Vice President, Senior Services of King County

Event includes group discussions with dinner courtesy of

Free and open to the public — Reservations are required. Call 425-452-6836 or email NeighborhoodOutreach@bellevuewa.gov

Forum sponsors:

Surrey Downs Community Club

Sunset Community Association

Somerset Community Association

Newport Hills Community Club

Whispering Heights & Collingwood Community Assoc.

Horizon Heights Community Association

Horizon Crest Community Association and City of Bellevue

